

Tutor	Discussion Topic
Slater and Gordon Law Firm and Event Sponsor	Litigation process to access sport following injury
English Federation of Disability Sport	Inclusive Communications for All	An introduction on how to reach more disabled people through inclusive communication utilising more accessible and better practices. Outcomes include how inclusive communications can engage wider audiences and basic practical access tips that can be included in your communications.
Leanne Wightman Disability Rights UK	Get Yourself Active	This session will offer an opportunity to find out about the partnerships developed and facilitated by Disabled People's Organisations, social care and health practitioners and local sport sector colleagues. You will discuss how these partnerships can lead to better outcomes for people with care and support needs and those using personal budgets
Alison Sturla Youth Sport Trust	Inclusive Activities for Schools & Clubs
Olivia Skelnar Clinical Support Worker Sports Therapy	The Supporting Role	This session will focus on the first steps used in rehabilitation to introduce active living to the lives of newly spinal injured individuals of all levels of injury and how continuing these activities post discharge is fundamental in maintaining physical and psychological wellbeing for a lifetime.